

Leaves for Omaha.

Mr. L. C. Yocum, who has been agent for the Rock Island Railroad at Liberal for nearly six years, has resigned his position to accept that of passenger and traffic agent of the Rock Island at Omaha. Mr. Yocum has served the railroad company and its patrons in a highly efficient manner and this promotion is a recognition of his faithfulness and ability. Mr. and Mrs. Yocum will be greatly missed in Liberal. They have been earnest, active workers in the Presbyterian Church, especially in the choir, as both are cultured singers and have given freely of their time and talent to the joy of all who heard them. Never can there be a more hospitable home than that of "the Yocums," who are noted for their generous and original entertaining. Their door was always open to their friends, and their friends were of all ages. Others will sing, others will entertain but the place held by Mr. and Mrs. Yocum in the hearts of their friends can not be taken by any one else.

Since the announcement of their intended departure was made, Mr. and Mrs. Yocum have been the guests of honor at dinners or luncheons given by Messrs. and Mesdames Stevesson, Gaw, Gibney, George, Baughman, Cavanaugh, Taylor, Nichols, Commons, and Ault.

Mr. Yocum expects to take up his new duties about July first. Before locating in Omaha they will take the "circle trip" to the Pacific coast, going by way of El Paso, visiting points of interest in California, Oregon, Washington, Vancouver, B. C., including delightful boat trips and a visit to Glacier Park. From Vancouver, they go to St. Paul, Kansas City and then to Omaha. All good wishes go with them for a delightful trip, and a happy and prosperous new home.

Last Friday the Liberal base ball fans went to Tyrone and put the Tyrone boys to route with a score of 6 to 3. It is said the boys here had on an automobile gait and left the Tyrone boys in the rear with the diamond made to look like the Tyrone boys were baffling with the smell of gasoline and at no time up with the fast gait put up by the Liberal boys.

Margaret, Althea and Leland, the two daughters and son of Rev. J. B. Frisbie and wife, and who have been visiting several weeks in Missouri came to abide in Liberal the first of the week. Rev. Frisbie is located in the house formerly occupied by W. P. Wright on Kansas avenue and they are now ready to welcome visitors to their home and will be glad to form the new acquaintance of the Liberal people.

Every day the prairie schoolers are seen going through here headed toward the north and west. The teams look well fed and the occupants are not long faced. The whole story is that these people, sometimes whole families are headed toward the harvest fields to help the part of the state which will have a heavy wheat harvest. Incidentally they will visit home folks and get back here in time to harvest their own fall crops.

Saturday afternoon, while Old Sol continued to send down his rays the rain and hail fell for a few moments in a very threatening manner. Beside the phenomena of having the sun and rain at the same time, part of the city did not hardly have more than a sprinkle of moisture. Some of the people who watched could plainly detect the break in the line of falling moisture and the place where there was no rain falling.

People who remember J. A. Miller who attempted to rescue Jet C. Rodgers and Ora Postlewait, Oct. 14 1911 from a cess pool where they had been working, remember that he was awarded a Carnegie Medal and neat sum of money besides. The medal was sent here to N. L. The rooms are to be used in connection with the rooming house conducted by Mrs. A. Haggerty and will be occupied by the help employed at the Greer house.

The Farmer Bros. have a sample of wheat that is from the Jim Calvert farm near this place. It was brought in several days ago and indications were that he would have a pretty good wheat crop for this year. The only thing necessary to have wheat in this country is to summer fallow and if the yield is anything at all as it is this year, if put in under proper conditions there is no reason why the wheat can not be raised here in larger quantities.

Monday evening the Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church gave Miss Georgia Glen a parcel post shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Myers. Each parcel was wrapped as though it were to be sent by parcel post, put in a suit case and then the radiant bride-to-be opened all the packages and the guests had a glimpse of few of the many things that she will have in her new home. Ice cream and cake were served to the guests who numbered about thirty.

Wednesday evening, at 7:30, Miss Maude Fuest was married to Otis Turner at the home of her parents, J. F. Fuest and wife. Jas. Sealey who is preparing for the M. E. ministry, presided as master of ceremonies at this, his first wedding. After the ceremony, the guest were invited to a supper. The wedding was a quiet one, with only a few friends and relatives present. Mr. Turner is a clerk in the Scandrett & Fuest hardware store. Mrs. Turner has grown to womanhood here and both have many friends who wish them well. They are housekeeping in a new home which has been built for them some time.

Wednesday, June 18, at 7 a. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Glenn, their daughter Miss Georgia was married to Mr. Mark A. Reder, a young banker of Wichita, Kans.
